

Money Idioms 1

Money is no _____ for the billionaire businessman who is determined his yacht will be the most luxurious ever built.

This is my favourite jacket. I bought it in New York, it cost me an _____ and a leg.

Be careful not to spill any of that, it's worth its weight in _____.

Sorry I can't stay longer, _____ is money, you know.

I'm a bit strapped for _____ at the moment. If you could lend me $50, I'll pay you back next week.

The quality of this work is terrible.

- Well, that's not surprising. If you pay _____ you get monkeys.

Come on, let's go shopping! I've just been given a bonus and it's burning a hole in my _____.

We're having some financial difficulties at the moment. I'm working a second job at the weekends just to make _____ meet.

I always get second and third helpings at the buffet. I like to make sure I get my _____'s worth.

time arm cash object peanuts gold pocket money ends
--

Try to think of situations where you might use one of the idioms above.