

Science survey

On a scale of 1 to 10, how interested are you in science?

In which areas do you wish scientists would spend more time and money?

What big scientific developments do you hope to see in your lifetime?

Do you think science will eventually have answers to all of life's mysteries?

What dangers could arise from future scientific developments?

Why do you think some people are afraid of scientific progress?