

medieval idioms

rule of _____

saved by the _____

the pen is mightier than the _____

in the _____

another iron in the _____

knock on _____

let the _____ out of the bag

learn the _____ raining cats and _____

cat, dogs, thumb, sword, fire, ropes, bell, wood, red

Can you think of a time you could have used one of these idioms?