

Love and romance idioms

I knew as soon as I met her that I wanted to be with her forever. It was love at first _____ .

We met at a tennis tournament and I immediately fell _____ over heels for him.

They seem so happy together. It seems to be a match made in _____ .

I don't know what she sees in him, he's rude and scruffy and never has any money. I guess _____ is blind.

She looked so stunning in her bridesmaid's dress, she took my _____ away.

love sight breath heaven head
--

A. Do you have any similar idioms in your own language?

B. Rearrange the sentences

love sight was at first It heels for I head over him fell a heaven in It's made match blind is true It's that love away breath takes my She

C. Replace the underlined part of the sentence with a suitable idiom. More than one answer may be possible.

1. I don't know why he likes her, she is so negative and always moaning. People who are in love don't notice each other's flaws sometimes.
2. They are so good together and have so much in common. It's like they are meant to be with each other.
3. We met on holiday in Spain and I quickly became completely in love with her.
4. When I first saw her, I knew straight away that I wanted to be with her.
5. We got to know each other online and when we met in person, I was completely amazed at how good looking he was.